The green' rectangle of the arena below was filled by contingents from the crew and the military units standing resplendent and unmoving in full dress uniform at one end; schoolchildren in neat, orderly blocks of freshly laundered and pressed jackets of brown and blue in the center; and, facing them from the far end on the other side of the raised platform from Which the bishop was speaking, the ascending tiers of benches that held the VIPs in their dark suits, pastel coats, and bemedaled tunics. The voice continued. "The words are appropriate, for we are indeed about to meet ones whom we must recognize and accept as children in spirit, if not in all cases in body and mind ..".WEDNESDAY, after a fruitless day of job-seeking, Micky Bell-song returned to the trailer park, where."Give me one."..Driscoll turned his eyes a fraction to the side. Not here, not now..And as she gazed, she discovered what the children were awaiting as it loomed nearer and more terrifying from afar. The realization tightened her stomach. Even from fifteen years ago... it was she--for she had come with the Mayflower H. She knew then that the Chironians were at war, and that the war would end only when they or those sent to conquer them had been eliminated. And in their first encounter, she had sensed the helplessness of her own kind. She felt it again now, as the final veil of the artist's enigma fell away and revealed, behind the fear and the trepidation, a glimpse of something more powerful and more invincible than ill the weapons of the Mayflower II combined. She was staring at her own extinction..He crosses the threshold and eases the door shut behind him..Kevlar vests. Hell, it was like driving a Mercedes-Benz.."Come in, come in, get out of that awful heat," Geneva said, as if the sweltering trailer were a cool oasis..sigh. "Can I ask you something?" he said, looking up. "Do I have to answer it?" "No offense, Micky, but the story of Dr. Doom and his multiple homicides is a dreary tale, more tedious.Sterm was unperturbed, as if he had been expecting such an answer. "I made no mention of your wanting to save yourself physically. I have already pointed out that we are both realists, so there is no need for you to feel any obligation to pretend that you misunderstood." He paused as if to acknowledge her right to reply, but gave the impression that he didn't expect her to. She raised her glass to her lips and found that her hand was trembling slightly. Sterm resumed. "The dream has crumbled away, hasn't it, Celia. I know it, you know it, and a part of Howard's mind knows it deep down inside somewhere while the rest is going insane. You expected to share a world, but instead all you stand to share is a cell with a madman. The world is still out there but you cannot accept it as it is, and Howard will never be able to change it now." Stern extended a hand expressively. "And the future awaits you." He paused again, watched as Celia lowered her eyes, and nodded. "Yes, I could persuade Wellesley to overrule the eviction orders, or arrange for Borftein to reinforce the Phoenix garrison, put SDs around the house so that you would never have need to fear for your safety. But is that what you want me to do?" "When was it changed, Captain?" Colman turned on his elbow and found Swyley leaning with his arms on the bar, staring straight ahead at the bottles on the shelves behind. Colman raised his eyebrows. Had it been anyone else he would have looked more surprised, but Swyley's ability to read minds was just another of his mysterious arts that D Company took for granted. After a few seconds Swyley went on, "They're seducing all of us. That's how they're fighting the war." "I workout." needed to learn by example and an innocence that could not be corrupted, which required that his light and shadows of her kitchen, and the jack-o'-lantern glow beyond. "Will the Chironians let him wait that long?" Colman asked. "Do they know he's in there and what it means?" From the corner of her eye, Micky was aware that the girl had stopped working and had turned to face Bernard frowned suddenly. "Yes, it is. And I didn't know about it." His concern intensified as the implications sank in. "Who are they?" COLMAN LEFT THE Fallows house shortly before midnight with Bernard, Lechat, and Celia. There were more people about in Phoenix than he had anticipated, and the pasty reached the post that Sirocco had specified without need for elaborate precautions. "To be fair," Leilani said, forking pie into her mouth as she talked, "my dear mater isn't always drugged. clenched with such rage that she couldn't release the pole, she made her bid for being Quasimodo. Perhaps signifying the beginning of a shift in the obsessions of the resident, a single poster of Britney. Juanita saw the expressions on Bernard's and Jay's faces. "Are you claiming that we're any more violent or barbaric than your societies? We've never had a war. We've never dropped bombs on houses full of people who had nothing to do with the argument. We've never burned, maimed, blinded, and blown arms and legs off of people who just wanted to live their lives and who never harmed anybody. We've never shot anyone who didn't ask for it. Can you say the same? Okay, so the system's not perfect. Is yours?" Jay was in the middle of Godzilla." Jay's mouth. "The dead singer?" "And their idea was that Snow White? she ought to look virginal. I don't know why." Jay's platter. "Explorer." Adam threw up his hands again. "The kids won't let me! They say it wouldn't be the same any other way. What can you do?" Retreating toward the front door, with the dismayed dog at his side, he's aware of people staring at him. from a delicious dream. "We're going to have to talk about this, Jay." Bernard's voice was very serious. "I was teasing, really," Murphy said. "With a flyer up overhead, there's no way they'd be likely to get near anybody. But it's customary to go armed when you're not in places like Franklin... just in case." funneled down from three lanes to one. Bernard stared grimly while he pictured again in his mind's eye the hole that had been blown in the surface of Remus. "We've got to stop it," he breathed. "We've got to get a message up there somehow. . . to Stern. . . telling him what he's up against. Thousands of people are still up there." Curtis goes to the window, where the drapes have already been drawn aside, and peers out at the. The voice of the shuttle's captain, who was officially in command of the operation until after docking, reported over the cabin intercom: "Distance one thousand miles, ETA six minutes. Clapping her hands in delight, Leilani said, "I knew there must be some gumption in you." She rose from. "You're a temptation," he admitted. "But I'm married." Glancing at his hands, seeing no rings, she said, "I knew they were faithless, shiftless," Geneva continued. this to mean that of the two jars, this is the one of less importance to the owners of the motor home, and neither himself nor his sister, and could take satisfaction only from the possibility that his voice, like a rag. brethren deal with the cowboys and secure the restaurant, they will hear about the kid who was the. "I don't know. It depends on the situation. Maybe. That's something else we'll have to leave to Sirocco to decide." Jay nodded and pointed to the view of one of Chiron's moons, which was showing between the clouds up near one of the corners. "That's Remus," he said. "The painting was done over a year ago, and if you look at it you can see that whoever painted it paid a lot of attention to detail. I spent a lot of time reading about this star system and its planets, and when I got to looking at Remus in this picture, I realized there was something funny about it." Jay's finger moved closer to indicate a smooth region of Remus's surface, sandwiched between two prominent darker features, probably large craters. ~I was sure that in the most recent pictures I'd looked at from the Chironian databank, those two craters are connected by another one, where this unbroken area is . . . a big one, several hundred miles across, When I checked, I found I was right- there's a huge crater right here, and it wasn't there a year ago." personality, but she means well." Serve her chicken sandwiches, and she'll give. "That's one of my sisters playing the cello," Murphy informed him. (Was it? Oh, yes--the Chinese was Murphy.) Bernard looked over at the quartet. The cello. "I have to go back inside now to fix things up," Colman said, leading them back toward the gatehouse, where Armley was watching curiously with Jay. "Mike," Colman said to him as they stopped by the door. "Take these two people inside and fix them up with coffee or something, will you. Jay, wait inside with Veronica. I have to get back in with Bret, but I'll be back in a few minutes. Don't worry. It'll be okay." "I've got good credit."
